

MIDSUMMER MUSIC TRAIN FROM CHESTER TO PLUMLEY

17th JUNE 2009

Root Chords are playing and singing on the music train and at the Golden Pheasant pub in Plumley on Wednesday 17 June. The train leaves Chester at 19:07 and we return at 22:45.*

Root Chords play blues, country and folk based music from both sides of the Atlantic on acoustic instruments but with the power and drive of rock. "That's why they are called the acoustic rock'n roll band."

The Music Train uses one of the regular hourly services on the Mid Cheshire line. There is no charge for the event - just the price of your ordinary train ticket. Your 'admission' is the train fare. Other than drinks and food at the pub, there is nothing else to pay - though there is a collection for the musicians at the end.

How it works

The music train uses one of the regular hourly services on the Mid-Cheshire line. It is arranged by the Mid-Cheshire Community Rail Partnership. The band plays on the train from Chester - we take over a carriage. At Plumley everyone alights to visit The Golden Pheasant for drinks and good food - and there is a further session from the band.

Chester Station is accessible. Parking on the station car parks costs £4.50. Parking outside the Queen Hotel and on City Road is free after 18:00. Plumley Station is accessible. The walk to the pub is 150m. The footway alongside the road from the station to the pub is narrow and not continuous, with poor visibility over the railway bridge. The pub is fully accessible.

There is no charge for the event - just the price of your ordinary train ticket. Your 'admission' is the train fare. Other than drinks and food, there is nothing else to pay. On the return journey there will be a collection on the train for the musicians.

The Music

Root Chords play blues, country and folk based music from both sides of the Atlantic on acoustic instruments but with the power and drive of rock. "That's why they are called the acoustic rock n roll band."

"We play the music we enjoy and we share our enjoyment with our audiences - in pubs, clubs, festivals and social events. Because we love to play live we're a hard working band and play frequently in Cheshire, North Wales and the Midlands area as well as in France and Holland. We are in the seventh year of a weekly residency at Alexander's in Chester and clock up another fifty gigs besides this each year."

Root Chords are well-known local performers at Alexander's in Rufus Court, Northgate Street, Chester.

The Pub

The Golden Pheasant is a traditional pub in the heart of rural Cheshire serving fresh, quality food and well-kept J W Lees's real ales. It is close to the station (it was originally the Railway Inn) and has recently been refurbished by new management.

It is a popular dining venue with an attractive beamed interior. It serves traditional bar food alongside some great homemade dishes at lunchtime and in the evenings on weekdays and all day at weekends. The normal menu is extensive and runs alongside a fantastic selection of regularly changing blackboard specials (which use the best of seasonal local produce) to choose from. . For the Music Train there is a special selection of dishes as well - The Music Train Menu – which can be found below.
